

2011 Connected Health Symposium Feedback Highlights

Attendees at the 2011 Connected Health Symposium reported that they found it a useful, interesting and informative opportunity to learn, network and become inspired. We're delighted that over 1,200 opinion leaders, healthcare providers, technologists, payers and government heavyweights joined us in Boston and contributed to the success of the Symposium. In an online survey following the event, attendees were asked for their feedback, and here's what they told us:

- 93% of attendees raved it the symposium was “excellent” and “one of the best I have ever attended”
- 92% of attendees told us, “You’ve got the right recipe. Keep it up!”
- What people are saying...
 - About the Symposium speakers:
 - “Very inspiring and dynamic”
 - “Outstanding”
 - “Excellent conference with world class speakers”
 - About the Symposium agenda:
 - “Excellent focus...Superb curriculum.”
 - “Conference blew me away, it was fantastic...excellent agenda!”
 - “Excellent speakers... Topics covered very diverse, felt like a lot of good stuff crammed into two days!”
 - “So many interesting [and] valuable presentations”
 - About the Symposium overall:
 - “A brilliant conference, the best organized and most valuable I have ever attended in thirty years of business - keep it up, see you next year!!”
 - “I walked away full of enthusiasm with renewed motivation. I hope to return next year with additional members of my organization.”
 - “I was very impressed by the quality of the keynotes, the scope of the topics/debates, and the overall organization of the conference.”
 - “A top-shelf experience.”
 - “Absolutely wonderful job. This was a gift for me to attend.”
 - “Wonderful conference. Wonderful experience. I learned so much...and I'm really looking forward to applying what I learned at this conference to my...future endeavors.”